Memoir 1957

Barbara Ann Hatle

Dear Barbara -

Just how do you say goodby to a friend that has been as dear to me as you have? I have really gained so much by being your friend and teacher. You are a wonderful person and I know you will be a success in any thing you choose to do. I will miss our talks and good times. You have been so much help to me in many ways. Don't forget our art lessons and our fun in 6th period (study?)

The very best of luck next year in College - I will be thinking of you so drop me a card and let me know how things are.

With Best Wishes
Shirley Steves
Pocahontas, Va.

Barbara,
It's been awfully nice knowing you this year! Remember speech class and (the good times we had 9.
Have fun in college, too; and don't forget your friend!
Mary Gay

The Memoir

1957

Published by
MANCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL
Route 11
RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

Foreword

As a theme for the 1957 MEMOIR, the staff chose the ALMA MATER, our school song written by one of the seniors.

Throughout the book we are presenting a pictorial and word account of our classes, sports, social life and school activities.

This, the twentieth volume of the MEMOIR, is a memorial to our classmates.

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our alma mater,
Gentle mother of our minds;
As we leave thy sheltering rafters
May we equal nurture find.

Alma mater! Alma mater!
We will love thee while we live.
To Manchester, now and always,
We our fond allegiance give.

Old Manchester, we'll remember
All the laughter and the tears;
And of teachers, friends, and classmates
Treasure mem'ries thru' the years.

And in evening's twilight gleaming,
Maybe when we're old and gray,
We'll remember in our dreaming
Long ago and far away.

Words by Judy Hagood

Tenfold In Four Years

The Manchester Band, under the direction of William S. Troxell, has increased tenfold in enrollment in the last four years. This year there were over 200 students taking music and 58 in the Varsity Band. In the future, Mr. Troxell has plans for Junior Varsity, Varsity, and Concert Bands and from these three bands he will take a "Marching Hundred." He also has feeder bands in four elementary schools in Chesterfield County, directed by Kenneth Henderson.

Leadership and Scholarship

The G. H. Reid Chapter of the National Honor Society was organized during the 1955-56 session.

New members were tapped before an S.C.A. assembly.

Members of this club must have at least a 'B' average and excel in Leadership, Service and Character.

This year the club sold candy to raise money. The group went caroling and collected food for baskets for the needy, at Christmas. They also informed the underclassmen about available scholarships.

Their main objective was to encourage fellow students to keep the HONOR CODE.

RESEARCH ON SCHOLARSHIPS. Cecilia Mansfield, Emily Cashion, Juanita Leighty collect information so they can help underclassmen.

The Manchester Junior Classical League was formed three years ago to help the Latin students gain a more thorough knowledge of Roman life, history and literature. There are 974 other chapters, with a total membership of 40,000, in the United States.

To reach the 1,000 mark in chapters was the goal of The National J.C.L. But the local project for the year was to send a delegate or delegates to The Fourth National Convention. Projects ranging from sweet sales to a Roman wrestling match were the means of reaching this goal.

Drama Group

"EVERYBODY MAKES MISTAKES," says Betty Gay Byer as Gloria Barden and Billy Staplecamp rehearse for a scene in the play.

After weeks of preparation, Curtain Time gave the members of the Dramatics Club a chance to present their accomplishments to the public.

Some students performed before the footlights while others worked backstage. But all cooperated to produce their shows.

This year the Dramatics Club under the sponsorship of Miss Carol Pope and Mrs. Marilyn Breckley, worked hard to increase student interest and participation in dramatics. They produced two one act plays on January 12. One was a comedy, Glamorous Gloria and the other a mystery, The High Window. They also presented to the students an Easter Pagent written by the club.

Specifically the aims of the club are to train and develop the members in dramatic activities, to build and share an appreciation for good dramatic art, and to make a contribution to the school through productions and service.

Fine Arts League Proves Successful in First Year

This is the first year for the Fine Arts League, but we are pleased with our reception by students and teachers. We hope that with their help we can accomplish even more next year than we have this past year.

Our purposes are to promote an interest in the Arts among members of the student body; to provide those with an interest in the Fine Arts a means of furthering that interest and becoming better acquainted with others who share their interests; and to provide those who have certain talents with a chance to display and improve their abilities.

Safety Patrolmen Protect Students, Buses and Schoolgrounds

LYNN WOODCOCK, Captain

The safety patrol is an organization to promote safety at school and on the routes to and from school. The members of the safety patrol try to keep order on the school buses. It is their responsibility to see that the pupils cross the streets safely. Safety is of interest to everyone and with the help of the student body the safety patrol hopes to make this a safe year.

Honor Council Strives For Greater Support of Honor Code

MEMBERS OF THE HONOR COUNCIL: Juanita Leighty, Emily Cashion, Randy Campbell, Cecilia Mansfield, Chairman, and Joan Condrey.

The Honor Council has as a motto, the word THINK. In every room of the school there is a sign to remind the students to be honest. Each letter stands for a different thought:

T ruth
H onesty
I nterest
N ecessary
K eep

The Honor Council was established here three years ago. Ever since, it has been doing outstanding work.

HONOR CODE
MANCHESTER DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

As a member of the student body at Manchester High School, I HEREBY PLEDGE MYSELF:

To be honest with myself and others in thought, word, and deed.

To promote clean wholesome thought, speech and conduct.

To be helpful and friendly to teachers and fellow students.

To be considerate of classmates, officers, safety patrols and bus drivers.

To encourage decent conduct, always remembering that I represent my school and community.

To strive to achieve and maintain high moral standards that will be a credit to my home and my school.

Last spring The Communique won the Virginia Press Award for the third consecutive year. This recognition is given each year to the paper with the most outstanding editorial campaign in the state. Also, The Communique won one of the ten Youth Group Achievement Awards in the nation given by Parents' Magazine for "Outstanding community service."

In the fall, the staff added a fifth point—better health—to the four existing editorial aims. Members furthered this campaign by working on projects that included talks made by county health supervisors, a TB health survey, and a contest held in cooperation with state organizations in locating the boy and girl best resembling the ones on the TB Christmas Seals. Health poems and stories were also written by students.

The staff also emphasized editorial aims and better public relations by co-sponsoring with Quill and Scroll weekly radio programs.

Added features in the paper include Passes Between Classes, a cartoon series by the staff artist; a new column—Career Guide, and an Alumni Series written by alumni who are living in foreign countries, a Who's Who column—selections for which are made on a basis of scholarship, extra-curricular activities and popularity.

"DRAWING PAGES IS FUN if you know how to do it," says Clarence Adams as he and Marilyn Folts show Emily Cashion how it is done.

Sale of Yearbooks

THE '57 MEMOIR STAFF, sponsored by Shirley Stoneham, and assisted by Marie N. Morris, edited the biggest book in the history of the school. They sold 550 copies and worked to produce a year book that the school would enjoy and keep as a remembrance of their high schools days.

"WORK AND MORE WORK is necessary to produce a good MEMOIR," says Lou Ellen Scott, Editor, to Betty Byer, Business Manager, as they look over new materials.

It's a good life at The Life of Virginia

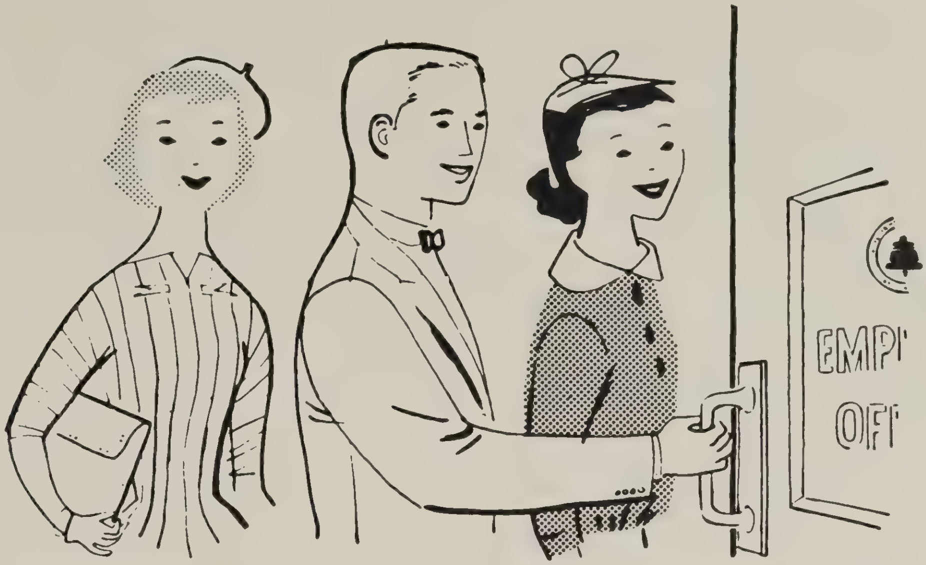
Your high school diploma is your passport to a good job with a real future, at the Home Office of The Life of Virginia. And it's a secure future with this 85-year-old insurance company...the kind of company you'll choose when you take out your own life insurance.

Come by or write for booklet that gives you the facts about your opportunities . . . how other young people have succeeded . . . and working conditions. Good pay, of course; five-day week; free advancement training courses; liberal vacations; air conditioned offices; employee cafeteria; insurance and retirement plans. It's all in the free folder, "Now, Really . . .". Be sure to get your copy.

Write or contact Personnel Division.

THE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF VIRGINIA

SINCE 1871 RICHMOND, VIRGINIA



MEMO TO:

the girl who wants an interesting job

You'll find it at the telephone company, where there's a variety of fascinating jobs for alert, capable young women who qualify.

You'll work in pleasant surroundings with many people about your own age . . . receive good pay while learning . . . get regular raises. And you don't need any experience.

Best of all, a telephone job is a satisfying job because you know you're helping almost everyone in your community. Why not find out more about the advantages of telephone work?
